Don't forget about the 50% Child Care Rebate this September holidays!

Extend - Australia's leading Outside School Hours Care service provider, is particularly sensitive to the needs of families during this tough economic climate, and believes that cost shouldn't determine whether or not children get to attend holiday programs.

Extend Managing Director, Darren Stevenson states "Many families don't realise how affordable good quality vacation care and holiday programs can actually be. With fee relief from the government in the form of Child Care Benefit (CCB) and Child Care Rebate (CCR), families typically pay well under $3.00 per hour. At Extend, families can choose half-day or full-day vacation sessions. It's great value when you consider that children receive expert care, nutritional snacks, and have fun participating in exciting and enriching activities with educational value."

With activities including Mermaid Magic, Science, Cooking, "Extend's Got Talent", Tabloid Sports, and more, children can "spring" into the September holidays with much to look forward to. Extend has holiday programs at locations across Australia so parents can find a location near their workplace for their kids to enjoy an Extend adventure experience.

Extend is now taking enrolments for the September 2009 school holidays for primary school aged boys and girls. Visit www.extend.com.au for more information or call the enrolment hotline on 1300 366 437 today to secure your booking before the closing date.
