A New Theme for Government School's Curriculum Days

On Friday 12 June 2009 Government Schools across Victoria will be closed. Extend, the up and coming leading provider of Outside School Hours Care (OSHC) will be transforming school yards and OSHC rooms into magical wonderlands, superhero cities and far away countries!

Introducing Curriculum Theme Days for the first time ever at an affordable price, these specially designed days are high quality and are underpinned by educational value that will guarantee to teach each child a new skill, combined with a whole lot of fun!

Jarrod Macdonald, the Programs Coordinator at Extend, has been behind the innovative and carefully tailored activities for several years. He says of the new Curriculum Theme Days "They are fun, engaging and stimulating for all Primary School aged children".

The Curriculum Theme Days are being delivered at Sunbury Primary School (Sunbury) and Highvale Primary School (Glen Waverley) and is based around one of the following themes; When I Grow Up, Superheros & Magical Wonderlands or Cultural Countries and activities include anything from decorating fairy wings, designing board games, dancing your way to fame or dining in your own restaurant, and the best part is all kid's have the option of dressing up!

Healthy snacks are provided and families are entitled to claim 50% of their money back at the end of the quarter. Activities are delivered all day from 8.00am – 6.00pm ($50 per child) with fully qualified staff that are engaging, friendly and passionate about teaching and entertaining kids in a safe and happy environment. Parents are also welcome to join in the fun too!

To register please call Extend's friendly customer service staff on 1300 366 437 or visit the website www.extend.com.au to find an extend location near you.
